

TEXAS NEGRO FAMILY OF 9 ARE SHOT TO DEATH

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER INCLUDED—KILLINGS RESULT OF RESISTING THE DRAFT.

Huntsville, Texas, June 1.—Sarah Cabiness, negroess, and her sons, George, Pete, Cate, Tenola and Len, are dead, and her daughter, Bessy, is probably fatally wounded as the result of a shooting affray early today in the Dodge neighborhood in this county. George Cabiness, another son, was shot and killed on Thursday afternoon when he resisted officers who had gone to his home to arrest him for threatening A. P. W. Allen, father-in-law of Sheriff T. C. King, with a gun and with evading draft service.

The killing of Cabiness aroused the members of his family. They made up their minds, it is said, to kill the entire Allen family. Friday, Mose Allen was informed of the intention of the negroes. About 10 o'clock last night one of the Cabiness negroes, carrying a shotgun, appeared at Mr. Allen's home and upon failing to give an account of his presence and reason for carrying the gun, was shot and badly wounded. The other members of the Cabiness family were near and carried the wounded man to their home about two miles away.

Shortly after daylight this morning a posse of citizens surrounded the Cabiness cabin and were met by the negroes with a volley from six shotguns. The posse began firing into the negro's house and soon it began burning. As the flames gained headway the mother began carrying the bodies of her four dead sons to the yard where she, too, was shot.

No White Man Is Hurt.
The negroes fired nearly 200 shots at the posse, but none of the white men was injured.

The Cabiness negroes were declared to be among the most desperate in this county, and George Cabiness had refused to register in the selective draft and failed to answer two calls sent him by the Walker County exemption board. Sheriff T. C. King and a number of deputies were on the scene this morning and on his return to the city, late today, stated that the wounded Cabiness girl could not recover and that by her expected death the entire Cabiness family would be wiped out.

Defied United States.
Two days ago George Cabiness, his mother and sister were badly wounded as the result of resisting officers. Cabiness repeatedly refused to register in the selective draft and did so only after being placed in jail in this city and later having been taken to Houston, where he was forced to comply with the law. He afterward refused to answer two draft calls and had sent word to Sheriff T. C. King to "come and get him," stating that he was ready to meet the officers.

Thursday he met P. W. Allen, father-in-law of Sheriff King, and at a reprimand from Mr. Allen the negro drew a revolver and threatened to shoot. A warrant was sworn out for the arrest of Cabiness, and officers went to his home and were met by the negro, his mother and sister, each armed with a shotgun. Before they could fire a shot the officers opened fire on them and Cabiness was shot in the breast and one side.

Plot to Kill Allens.
Subsequent to this tragedy it is charged other negroes entered into a conspiracy with the Cabiness crowd to kill the Allen family.

Of the six negroes killed this morning, two were women, the mother and sister of Cabiness. Whether the bodies of the six were burned with their cabin has not yet been learned.
